

Dr Francesca La Morgia

Dr Francesca La Morgia is Assistant Professor in Clinical Speech and Language Studies in Trinity College Dublin and the founder and coordinator of the Irish Research Network in Childhood Bilingualism. Before joining Trinity College, Francesca lectured at the University of Reading, where she was Assistant Professor in Bilingualism. Francesca has been running workshops for bilingual families, teachers and other professionals for 10 years, and in 2017 she founded Mother Tongues, to raise awareness of the benefits and challenges associated with plurilingualism. Francesca has published in international peer reviewed books and journals on the topics of bilingual language development, language dominance in bilingual children, and language impairment. More details can be found here.