

Leena Nissilä

Leena Nissilä is Counsellor of Education and Head of Unit at the Finnish National Agency for Education. She holds a PhD degree with a dissertation focused on second language acquisition. Her activities include memberships of several curriculum development teams with special focus on language education, language awareness and multiliteracy. She is actively involved in the development of immigrant education at national and international levels.