

Vicent Marzà Ibáñez

Vicent Marzà Ibáñez is the Regional Minister of Education, Research, Culture and Sports in Valencia. As Education Counciller he is currently responsible for the implementation of a new system for teaching and learning in three languages in Valencian schools. After initial engineering studies, Vicent acquired a diploma for teaching foreign languages and Valencian. He has a Master's degree in social and community pedagogy: leadership in socio-educational transformation.